Dear Parents of Holy Rosary Students:

It is with both joy and anticipation that I begin my eighth year as School Counselor at Holy Rosary School and fourteenth year in Catholic education. I'm extremely pleased by how the 2006-07 school year went, and I'm confident that this year will also be successful.

As a counselor, my duties vary greatly. They include working with individual students, working with groups of students, meeting with parents, and meeting with entire families. In this work, I help children/families grow by exploring a variety of issues, such as academic difficulties, sibling rivalries, classroom disturbances, family problems, deaths, etc.

Please know that my number one priority is to provide a professional service that helps support the children and families of Holy Rosary School. If you would like your student to attend counseling, it is necessary for you to sign a consent form. They are available from teachers, in the office, and from other school personnel. Once I receive the form, I will contact you and then begin meeting with your child. Furthermore, if you have any questions, please feel free to contact me here at school, at 757-1270 x 43.

Sincerely,

Steven L. DeBenedetti-Emanuel, M.A., L.M.F.T.
